BIBB COUNT CITIZENS FOR WILDFLOWERS

Founded in 1999 and incorporated as a 501(c)(3), BCCW seeks to:

Promote the understanding,
appreciation, enjoyment, protection, and stewardship of Bibb County's scenic roadsides, streams, and rivers;

Secure the adoption and implementation of sound management policies and programs at the county, state and national levels that will protect and maintain the integrity of native vegetation and aquatic ecosystems.

BCCW

Sponsors activities that promote knowledge, appreciation, and use of native plants.

Sponsors activities at the Cahaba Lily Festival.

Presents the annual Kae Canon Allen Award for outstanding dedication to preserving Bibb County's unique natural heritage.

Sponsored a 2008 resolution for designation of the Little Cahaba as an Alabama
Scenic River.

Is a corporate member of Alabama PALS (People Against a Littered State).

Works with such organizations as Friends of the Cahaba River National Wildlife Refuge, Cahaba River Society,
The Nature Conservancy, and Alabama Rivers Alliance to promote environmental awareness.
